Editorial

We are pleased to release this third issue in the sixth volume.

In the opening paper on “Exploring the UGC Infonet E-Resources Consortia on the Universities Library in India with Special Reference to Jharkhand: A Study” the authors Bal Ram, and Bhaskar Karn have studied the awareness of of e-Resources and UGC Infonet consortium in a selected region in India and came up with the documentation of the positive impact.

In the next paper on “Set up an Online Content Management System to Display Press Clips at Central Library, Jawaharlal Nehru University: a Strategic Approach” the authors Bibhuti Bhusan Pattanaik and Somesh Viswakarma have studied the press display unit and highlighted the past and current practices of its operations, collection development, management and access process.

Smita Panda and Amit Kumar Shaw in their last paper on “Silver Lining: Cloud Computing for Academic Libraries” described what cloud computing is for libraries and its merits, features and types to be considered before putting the data in the cloud.

Hope the published papers represent good amount of the work carried by the authors.
