

Editorial

We welcome the readers to read and use the contents in the last issue of the tenth volume of the International Journal of Information Studies. This issue has the following papers.

In the first paper on “Preserving Memory through Media Migration Rare Books in Bogor Botanic Gardens Library for Researcher Community” the authors Syifa Adiba and Febriyanto Febriyanto have explained the library materials reformatting activity, especially rare books in Bogor Botanic Gardens Library. The authors in this paper have used the observation method with qualitative analysis. Finally the authors provided the criticism and suggestion about reformatting process in Bogor Botanic Garden.

In the second paper on “Web Presence of Selected Iconic Public Libraries’ of India: Webometric Analysis” the authors Krishna Brahma and Manoj Kumar Verma examined the websites of Selected Iconic Public Libraries’ in India. The study analysed the total number of webpages, domain authority, equity-links, internal, external links and web impact factor and ranked them.

Kasturi Sahay in the last paper on “An Emerging Concept- Integrating Traditional Leadership and Virtual Leadership with special reference to Indian IT Industry” has studied the important determinants of organizational effectiveness of traditional and virtual leadership with special reference to IT Organisations. Author has found that the traditional leadership provides importance to human touch and it paves a way to develop a strong relationship between leaders and the team members.

The papers provide some insights based on deep analysis.

Editors